ARCHITECTURAL AND CULTURAL HISTORY OF PLACES

How to Use the BLR Reads Catalogue

The BLR Reads Library uses the Dewey Decimal Classification (DDC) system to catalogue books, journals, and archival material. This means every subject is given a number, making it easy to find and browse related works.

How it Works

Numbers = Subjects

The more digits, the more specific the subject

Example:

720 - Architecture

720.9 - Historical treatment of architecture

720.97 - Architecture of the United States

So, if you're looking for books on Architecture in India, you'll find them under 720.954 (Architecture in South Asia (India))

Quick Guide to Our Collection

Here are some common numbers you'll see in the BLR Reads Library:

300 - Social Sciences | Cities, communities, governance

304 - Environmental Studies | Sustainability, ecology, climate

307 - Communities | Urban sociology, neighbourhoods

710 - Civic & Landscape Art | Urban planning, landscape design

711 - Area Planning | Town & city planning

720 - Architecture | General works on architecture
